Erasmus+: Erasmus Mundus Eligibility Criteria for Scholarship Holders

The new Erasmus+ programme offers two types of scholarships for Europubhealth students, whether they come from a Programme Country (i.e. the 28 EU member states, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, Turkey and FYROM) or from a Partner Country (any other country of the world that is not a Programme Country).

In order to apply for a scholarship funding your two-year Europubhealth Master course, you must fulfill the following Erasmus+: Erasmus Mundus eligibility criteria:

- Individuals who have already benefited from an Erasmus Mundus scholarship at a Master level are not eligible.
- Students benefiting from an Erasmus+:Erasmus Mundus scholarship cannot benefit from another EU grant while pursuing their Erasmus Mundus Master studies.
- The number of applications must be limited to a maximum of three different Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Degrees.
- Student must have at least a university bachelor degree (180 ECTS) or officially recognized equivalent and be able to provide a copy of this diploma when applying online or at the latest before the official starting date of the programme.
- Students must study full time during the two years of the Europubhealth Master course.

Specific eligibility criteria for Partner Country scholarships

Erasmus+:Erasmus Mundus Partner country scholarships can be awarded to any student selected by the Europubhealth consortium and fulfilling the following criteria:

- Being a citizen of a “Partner Country”, that is to say any country that is not:
  - a EU Member State
  - a EEA-EFTA state (Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway)
  - Turkey, the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia (FYROM)

- Not being resident or having carried out his/her main activity (studies, work, etc.) in any of the above mentioned countries for more than a total of 12 months over the last five years. The five-year reference period for this rule is calculated backwards as from the application submission deadline.

Specific eligibility criteria for Programme Country scholarships

Erasmus+: Erasmus Mundus Programme country scholarships can be awarded to any student selected by the Europubhealth consortium and not fulfilling the eligibility criteria for a Partner country scholarship.

Important: Erasmus+:Erasmus Mundus scholarships are composed of a contribution to participation costs, a contribution to travel and installation costs, and a monthly contribution to subsistence costs. Please note that Erasmus+:Erasmus Mundus scholarship holders are not entitled to receive their monthly contribution to subsistence costs for a study period spent in their country of residence.
